To innovate or die!

"Our commitment has made us who we are today. What's more, we are always on the lookout for the hottest new trends and cover a lot of miles looking for those unique ideas that were made just for you! Sure, we sell pens like everyone else, but we will make sure that yours will be the one your client uses from here on out!"

- Karine Ouimet, President

"During a business cocktail, a good friend of mine suggested I meet an energetic young woman starting out in the promotional items industry. She came to our team with many refreshing new items to present to our clients. The best part of this client/supplier relationship is that every time a new challenge arises, be it good or bad, she is always there. Success is guaranteed!"

"Promko has been our resource for all of our promotional items since 1999. Our relationship evolved into a trusting friendship. Karine is a wise business-woman who's professionalism is definitely key to her trust-based relations with clients. I want to thank Promko for it's excellent service and amazing ideas of promotional items. All the best for the future!"
